

THE FORTY-EIGHTERS

Political Refugees of the German Revolution of 1848

Edited by A. E. ZUCKER

In this book about the group of German idealists who fought to establish a liberal and unified Germany and, defeated came to the United States in the late forties and fifties of the last century, eleven scholars and historians pool their knowledge of this distinguished band in a commemorative volume. The list of contributors to this symposium contains the names of Carl Joachim Friedrich, Oscar Handlin, Hildegard Binder Johnson, Augustus J. Pahl, Lawrence S. Thompson, Frank X. Braun, Eitel W. Dobert, Ella Lonn, Bayard Quincy Morgan, Arthur D. Graeff and A. E. Zucker. A biographical appendix, compiled by the editor, contains short biographies of over three-hundred Forty-eighters.

" It is not enough to say that this is a competent book. I think many readers will consider it an unusually engaging and strikingly original addition to the literature on immigration to the United States. . . . A literary venture, ably edited by a scholar who has devoted himself to this field of enquiry with singular industry and intelligence."
