OUR CONTRIBUTORS

DR. DIETER CUNZ, author of The Maryland Germans and numerous articles on German-American immigration history, is Professor of German at the University of Maryland, College Park, Md. For more than ten years he has been editor of the annual bibliography "Americana-Germanica."

MR. KLAUS G. WUST, author of Zion in Baltimore, has contributed articles to various journals on the history of the German element in Virginia. After a year of studies in France and Germany he is now preparing his doctoral dissertation at the Sorbonne on the topic of Alsatian emigration.

DR. EITEL WOLF DOBERT, Assistant Professor of Foreign Languages at the University of Maryland, has written books and articles on the problem of Franco-German rapprochement and on the literary activities of the German Forty-eighers in the United States. DR. AUGUSTUS J. PRAHL, Professor in the Foreign Language Department of the University of Maryland, has published a monograph and articles on German literature. His contributions in the field of Americana-Germanica include articles on the Turner movement, on Friedrich Gerstäcker and Bayard Taylor.

DR. HANS-LUDWIG WAGNER, who served as minister to several Lutheran congregations in Canada and Illinois, came to Baltimore in the fall of 1954 to become pastor of Zion Church, the earliest German-American church in the city. DR. A. E. ZUCKER, Chairman of the Division of Humanities and Head of the Foreign Language Department at the University of Maryland, is a well known scholar in the field of Americana-Germanica. A few years ago he edited a cooperative volume: The Forty-Eighters, Political Refugees of the German Revolution of 1848.